Dear Sister Komac:

Below please find the notification history from the USPS regarding the notice of trial. The certified notice of trial was mailed by our office on January 21, 2020. You were first notified on January 21, 2020. The letter was delivered to you on February 1, 2020.

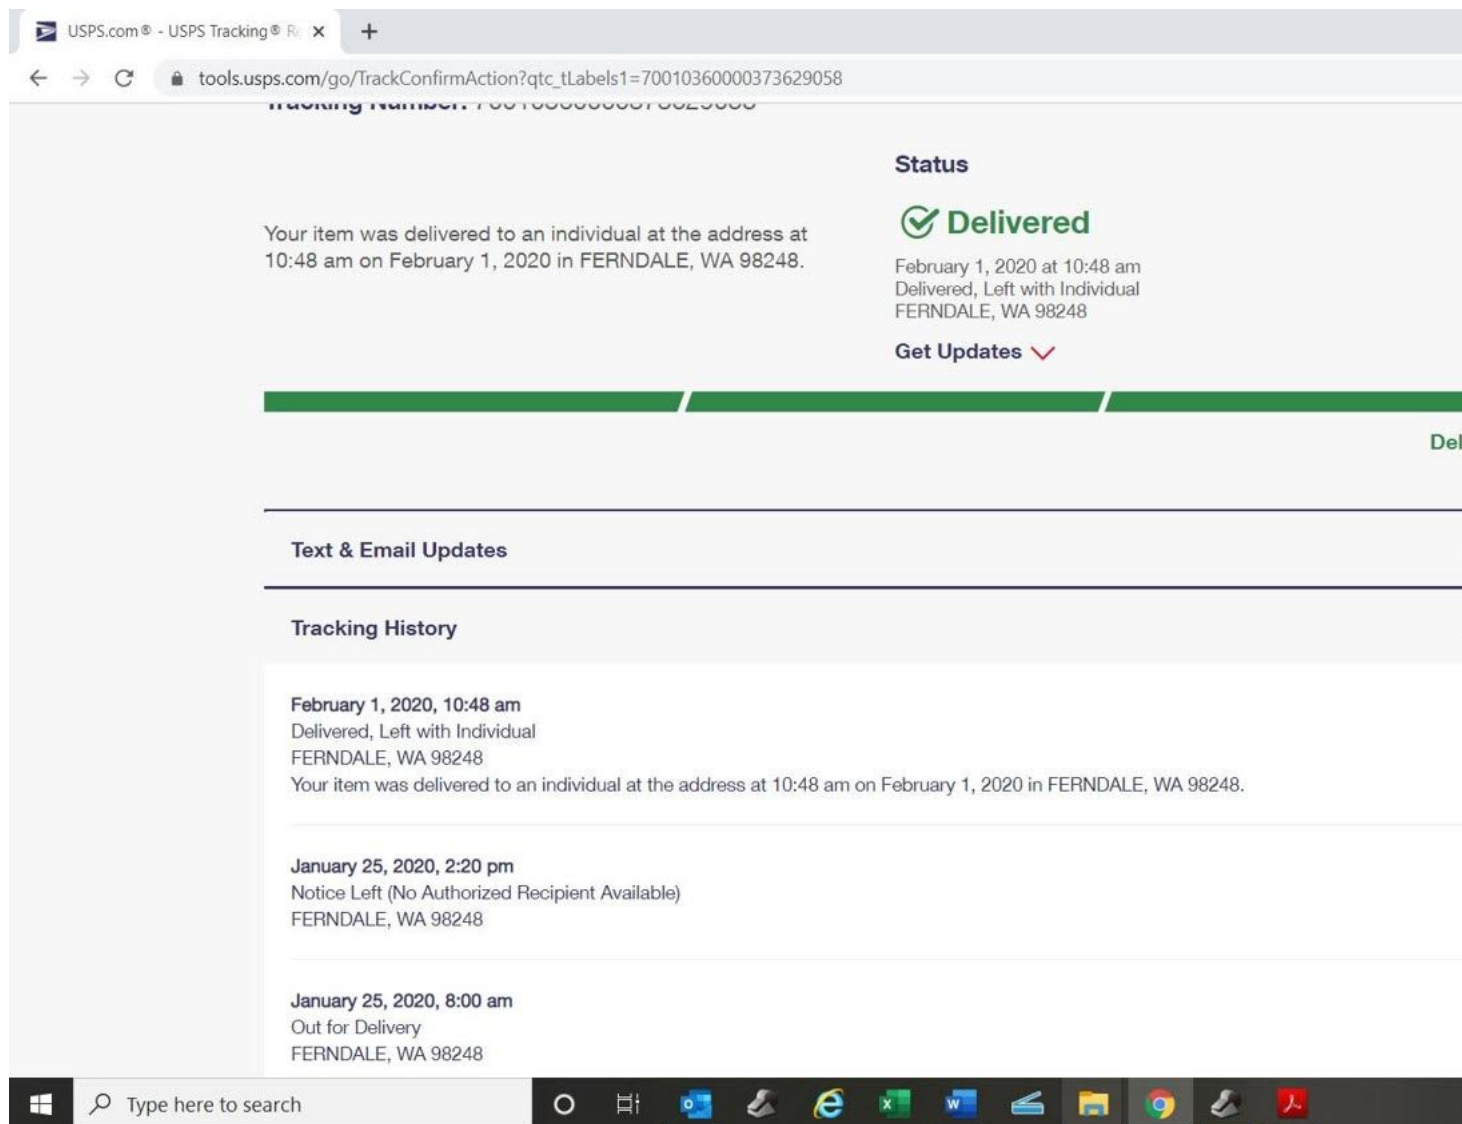

The notice of trial was sent by the Judicial Panel in compliance with the AFSCME Constitution and the Judicial Panel Rules of Procedure. Your request for a postponement of the February 11

Lastly, other than to the extent set forth in the Judicial Panel Rules of Procedure, the Judicial Panel does not get involved in the appointment of attorneys to represent the parties in Judicial Panel

In solidarity,

Richard Abelson

attached is my letter that I am thinking of sending in response to the below I received this morning.

This is different than the appeal to JP 19-66 which I haven't worked on yet. *note that Andy and Tom aren't part of this now which is a good thing. Congrats Andy and Tom.

Jael

Dear Mr. Ableson and all, please see attached.

For members of the media who are copied on this message, please see the website www.pnwe.org for as they say, "the rest of the story". You may also wish to review the attachment "JP-83 Media Dugovich Charges.pdf" to see how when you complain about leadership, you are attacked and run off. Not surprisingly, that case still awaits the attention of the Judicial Panel.

Sincerely,

Ms. Jael Komac, Member
